Re: United States v. Salvador Collado
07 CR 1144(HB)

Dear Judge Baer:

I write, in the above captioned case, to request a modification of the bail conditions for my client, Salvador Collado. On December 13, 2007, Magistrate Judge Theodore Katz set the following bail conditions: a $200,000 personal recognizance bond to be signed by two financial responsible persons and secured by the equity in two properties, one in the Bronx and one in Pennsylvania, strict pretrial supervision as well as continued parole supervision, and travel restricted to the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York. The deadline for the posting of the properties was set for today, December 27, 2007.

Unfiled As I mentioned in court this morning, Mr. Collado has begun the process of posting the properties, but requests until January 4, 2008 to complete this process. Also, Mr. Collado requests permission to travel to Reading, Pennsylvania to sign the necessary documents for the posting of the property.

In addition, Mr. Collado requests a modification of the travel restrictions to allow him to travel, for employment purposes, to Oakland, New Jersey and Allentown, Pennsylvania during the months of January, February and March of 2008.

As confirmed in court this morning, Assistant United States Attorney Telemachus P. Kasulis consents to these requests for modification of the bail conditions.
